

Cause and Effect Examples

As I was reading Grumpy Cat, I came across a cause and effect event. It began to rain outside, and Cat couldn't find a dry place to hide. Therefore Cat as well as Kitten got wet and soggy. The causes are it was raining, and there was no dry place to hide. The effect, or outcome, is Cat and Kitten got wet and soggy.

OR

Cat was trying to rid of Kitten by climbing up a tall tree. Kitten was following Cat up the tree and he slid off a thin branch and fell. Cat then caught Kitten and kept him from falling on the ground. The effect is Cat caught Kitten by the scruff and saved him from falling to the ground. The cause is he slipped off a thin branch and headed toward the ground.
